May It Please the Court:

On 14 June 2013, undersigned informed the Court of plaintiff's usual game-playing and refusal to pick up mail related to these or any legal matters.

Attached hereto a copy of a second set of legal documents that have been refused and returned to me, as being refused, by the USPS service. Attached also is the tracking verification that Handshoe refuses to accept such federal postal service of legal documents are required under both federal and state law [Exhibits A,B, and C - Postal Envelope With Certified Mail Certificate & Reusal Noting on 15 June 2013, hand-written and scanned, tracking printouts].

Pro se defendant reserves the right to ask the Court to issue an order waiving service on Handshoe for the filing of any future pleadings or an order otherwise facilitating service and preventing Handshoe's intentional refusal to comply with federal rules of civil procedure, obstructing the legal processes of these Courts, and mail fraud arising from such obstruction.

Respectfully submitted,
